Excerpt: . . . 11 that applications for disability insurance benefits leveled off in 1994 and have actu-ally declined 16 percent by 1999 despite the fact that more people are moving into the prime ages for disabilities. It seems likely that the tight labor market has con-tributed to the lack of growth in disability insurance applications. The total number of disabled workers receiving benefits has continued to increase, however, because more people have come onto the rolls each year than have left. The disability program has experienced significant and not fully explained fluc-tuations over the last two decades. The trustees therefore recommend that the pro-gram be monitored closely in coming years. The 2000 Trustees Report intermediate projections show that tax income to the DI fund will exceed expenditures through 2006, but that full DI benefits can be paid until the funds assets are exhausted in 2023. Over the 75-year projection...
