A goal may be scored from a free kick which is awarded because of any infringement of Law 9, but not from any other free kick. Wearing soft india rubber on the soles of boots is not a violation of this law. Then strip, lads! and to it though sharp be the weather, And if by mischance you should happen to fall, There are worse things in life than a tumble in heather, And life is itself but a game of football. From the above quotation by Sir Walter Scott, it is evident that football is quite an ancient game. Time alters everything, and it has undoubtedly done so in football. Where one used to play with half the village on one side and the same on...
