Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A home is more than a house, and everyone knows home is where your heart is. Use this book to discuss the concepts of home and love as you learn to read and build your dolch reading word list vocabulary thought the use of rhyme and word recognition and kid-friendly drawings! Written and illustrated by award winning author, attorney and former teacher, Penelope Dyan, this book is fun and encourages creativity through this tried and true classroom technique. If drawings are simple, they can be copied. Along with that naturally comes the writing of words, and the extra large print in these first early reader are easy on young eyes. Dyan believes learning should be fun and that everything in the toolbox should be used to make sure all the fun of learning really sticks! While she does this, she imparts a bigger message. See if you recognize what that message is. Look for the Bellissima video that goes along with this book on the Bellissima video channel on YouTube for more...
