AN ACCOUNT OF THE CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION AT PRINCETON, N. J: JUNE 27TH, 1876 (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Account of the Centennial Celebration at Princeton, N. J: June 27th, 1876 Warrant For Such A Celebration. So many distinguished citizens of Princeton, and so many former students of the College, having taken a prominent part in the Revolution of 1776; and the battle fought here during that period having been one of no inconsiderable influence on the destinies of our country, it seemed to our citizens eminently appropriate that we, who were in the enjoyment of the blessings our ancestors self-sacrifices had helped to procure, should, after the lapse of a century, when time had established, and history had recognized, the splendor and beneficence of their action, review our privileges and commemorate in some way these men and their deeds. As far as possible, therefore, it was ordered, through a Centennial Celebration, that of the men of that trying period whose deeds had been so powerful a lever to lift our country into magnitude and well-being, there should be no forgotten graves, no dim vision of the patriotic good will which they had shown. And as, in all ages and by all people, to awaken the dormant feeling of patriotism and kindle anew the fires of devotion to country has been esteemed a solemn duty, into this same line of thought and channel of action we seemed to be thrust, and shut up to the belief, that no more honorable work could be pursued than to approach with reverence and gratitude those altars of the past, and there do obeisance. It were impossible, at this late day, to enumerate the names even, much less the deeds, of greater or lesser heroism, of all...
